What does that mean?

WATCH STORY

When we hoist our National Flag,

we rise above religious, regional and political affiliations and show our love for the nation.
It is a constant reminder of the supreme sacrifices made by the sons of our soil for the glory of Mother India

Our Story

Journey towards transformative movement

UNTIL 2004

The Elusive Symbol: The National Flag's Limited Visibility

Once rare, the National Flag of India was seen only on special occasions. It symbolized patriotism but felt distant to the common man until 2004, when everything changed.

23rd January 2004

A Landmark Ruling: The Flag as a Fundamental Right

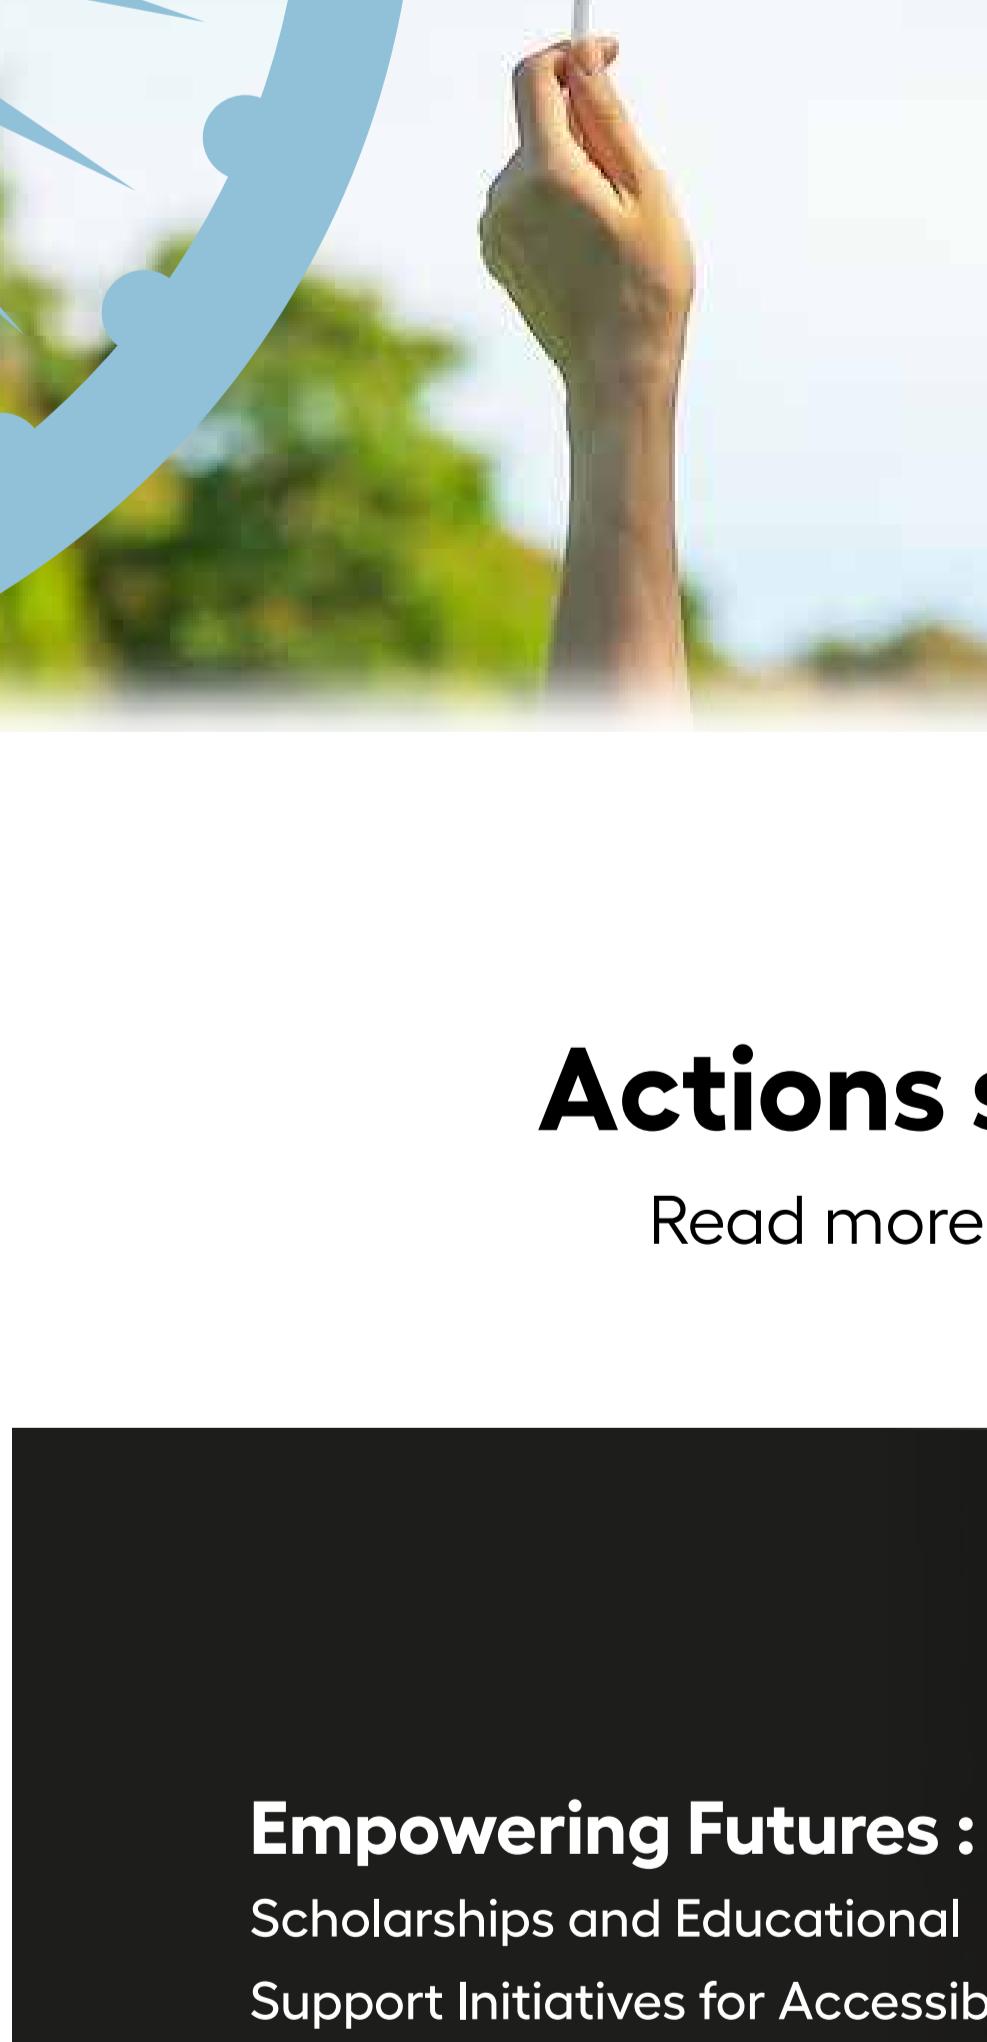

On January 23, 2004, the Supreme Court of India granted every citizen the fundamental right to fly the National Flag, ensuring freedom of speech and expression. The tricolor could now be proudly displayed by the common man at homes, workplaces, and public areas year-round.

PRESENCE

Soaring Heights: Monumental Flags Symbolizing Unity

Dr. Bakshi's plan: monumental flags soaring high across Mumbai, symbolizing unity and honoring martyrs' sacrifices, forever reminding us of the precious gift of freedom.

VISION

From Dream to Reality: The Flag as a Fundamental Right

Once rare, the National Flag of India was seen only on special occasions. It symbolized patriotism but felt distant to the common man until 2004, when everything changed.

True Patriotism

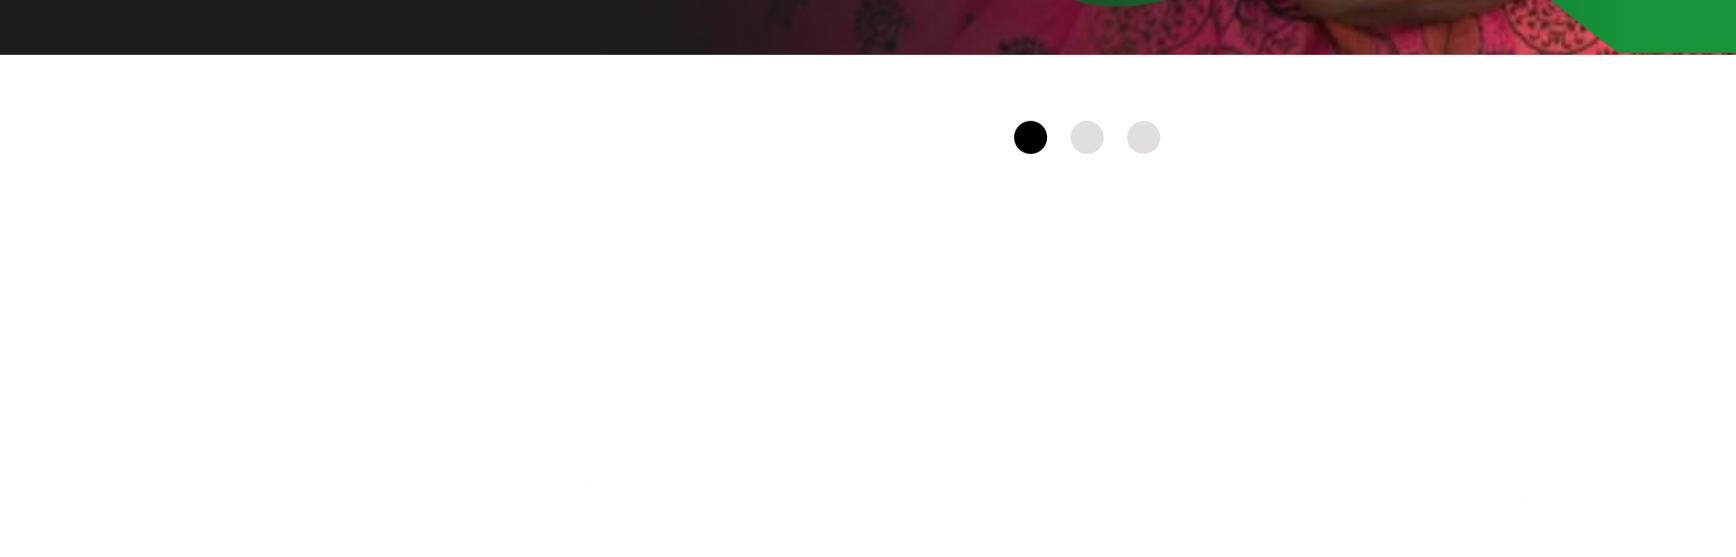

Goes beyond mere words & symbols

One of the ways we can demonstrate our love for our nation is by sincerely performing our duties. Whether it's in our professional lives, as responsible citizens, or as volunteers, we have the power to contribute positively to our communities.

The DK Flag Foundation encourages individuals to take up roles and responsibilities that align with their skills and passions. Through our various initiatives, we provide opportunities for individuals to actively engage in nation-building activities, be it in the fields of education,
